VACANCY FOR THE POST OF VICE-CHANCELLOR

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Notice is hereby given to the Nigerian and global academic community that the post of Vice-Chancellor of Osun State University shall become vacant on August 1, 2012. The Visitor to the University and Governor of the State of Osun, Ogbeni Rauf Aregbesola, has directed that the process of appointment of a new Vice-Chancellor commences immediately. Applications are hereby invited from suitably qualified candidates to fill the distinguished position.

ABOUT OSUN STATE UNIVERSITY

Osun State University (UNIOSUN) was established by the Law of the Osun State House of Assembly in December 2006. The University commenced academic activities on 21 September 2007, simultaneously on permanent sites on its six campuses located in the six geopolitical zones of Osun State. The campuses are located in Osogbo (Main Campus), Ejigbo, Ifetedo, Ikire, Ipetu-Ijesa and Okuku.

UNIOSUN is a conventional comprehensive university offering programmes in the Liberal Arts, Agriculture, Basic and Applied Sciences, Environmental Studies, Engineering, Law, Education, Medical Sciences, and Management and the Social Sciences. Its academic activities are carried out in seven Colleges, namely: College of Agriculture, Ejigbo Campus; College of Education, Ipetu-Ijesa Campus; College of Humanities and Culture, Ikire Campus; College of Law, Ifetedo Campus; College of Management and Social Sciences, Okuku Campus; College of Health Sciences, Main Campus, Osogbo; and, College of Science, Engineering and Technology, Main Campus, Osogbo. In addition, there are a number of interdisciplinary academic centres including: Centre for Human Resource Development and Lifelong Learning, Centre for Climate Change and Environmental Research, Centre for Alternative Energy and Rural Technologies, the Centre for Pre-Degree Studies, and the newly inaugurated Postgraduate College. Other academic research centres and units are being planned as the University enters the second phase of its development, including the UNIOSUN Business School, Centre for Space Science and Technology and Centre for Applied Organisation and Management Science.

Osun State University has the vision of becoming the biggest and the best University in Nigeria in the nearest future, and has the goal of developing into a world class institution of learning. Given its multi-campus nature and its rapid expansion in the short period of its existence, the University offers unique challenges to its chief executive, who is expected to drive the vision of the institution's founding fathers. The new Vice-Chancellor shall lead the University into its second phase of development including the implementation of its 2012 – 2016 Strategic Plan. The University has a current undergraduate enrolment of over 6000 reflecting its age and NUC-approved carrying capacity.

THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

The Vice-Chancellor is the Chief Executive and academic head of the University. S/he shall be the chief exponent of the educational mission of the university and his/her office shall serve as the nerve centre of activities in areas of protocol, external relations and coordination of various internal organs. The Vice-Chancellor sees to the day-to-day administration of the university and he shall see that the goals of the university are met. S/he is responsible to the Governing Council for the management of the human, monetary and material resources of the university.

The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise general superintendence over the University and be responsible to Council for maintaining and promoting the efficiency and good order of the University. It is the duty of the Vice-Chancellor to see that the provisions of the law, the Statutes, the Ordinances and the Regulations of the University are observed, and he may exercise such powers as may be necessary or expedient for that purpose. The Vice-Chancellor must therefore be competent at all times to advise Council on any matter affecting the policy, finance and administration of the University.

The Vice-Chancellor is, by virtue of his office, a member of Council, Chairman of Senate, Chairman of the Congregation, Member of Colleges/Faculties and any other authority of the University set up by Statute and of any Board or Committee appointed by any of those bodies.

The success of his job will depend on his ability to lead, motivate and inspire administrative associates, academic and non-academic staff as well as students and all other stakeholders to work toward the central purpose of the University to advance learning and enhance talent.

TENURE OF OFFICE/TERMS OF APPOINTMENT

The Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a term of five (5) years, and shall not be eligible for re-appointment.
